Realistic Idea

✦ Middle Ground ✦

First Steps

Create a Grid of Balls;

Create another ball in a different position that was going to be our “cannon”;

Note that the next row is in a slightly different position than the previous row;

Think about how we would make the movement in our game;

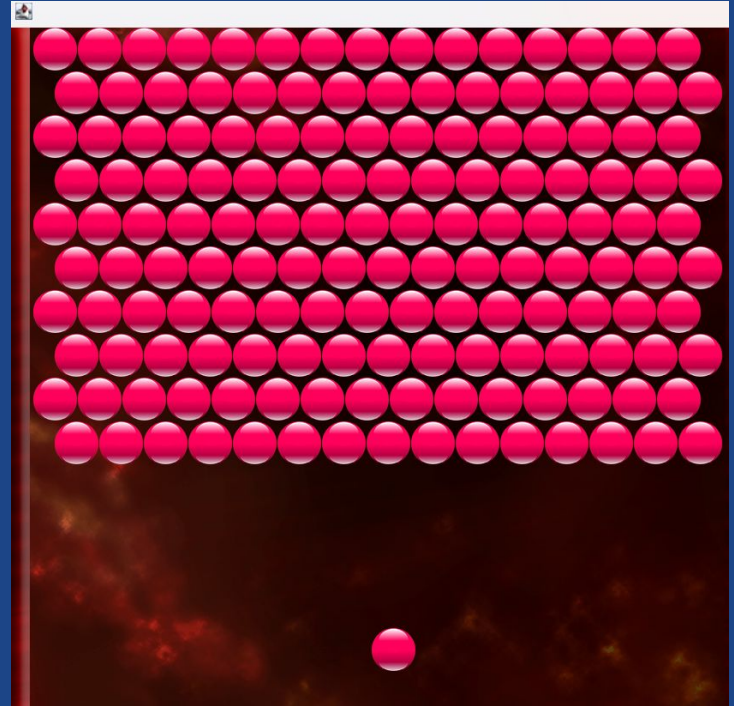

└ First Steps ─

Collisions between objects in our game;

Make the balls fall or disappear when certain conditions were met;

└ Small Wins ─

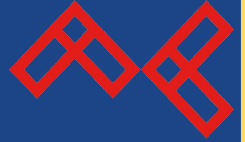

└ BIG Wins ─

Features

Ammunition in the Cannon

Makes it possible to create strategies

Ability to score points!

Points are loaded and saved in an internal database

Possibility to use different buttons

Key “M” mutes and unmutes, “Q” quits the game and “R” restarts it

Boring but hard math behind our game!

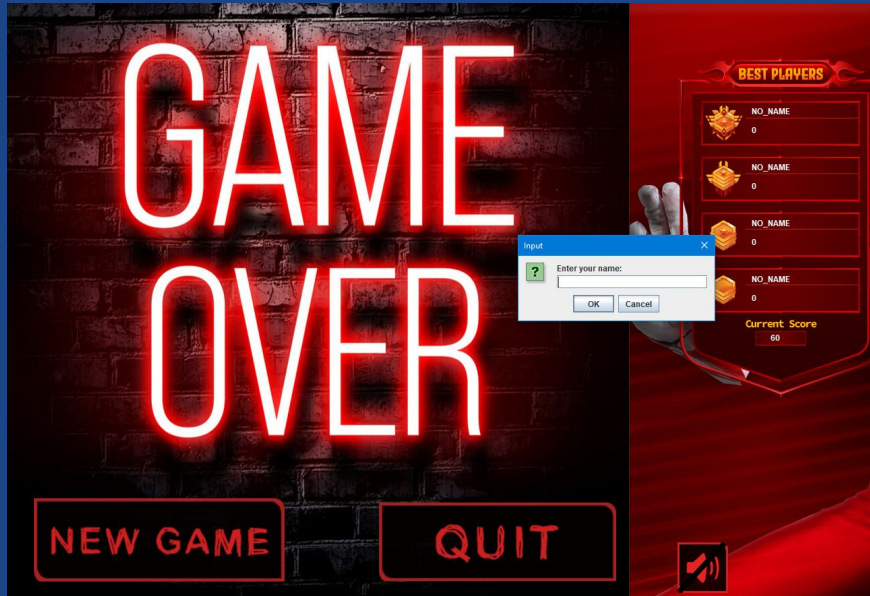

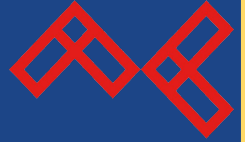

Game looks simple but has numerous algorithms working in the back
